In Dallas, even outfitting store windows can be performance art.

See for yourself if you are near the downtown Neiman Marcus on Wednesday, as seven window installations are completed and unveiled. Neimans, a founding sponsor of the event, has dedicated display windows at its Main and Ervay Street store to the 2011 Dallas Art Fair

Participants will be on hand between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to complete the installations. The windows will remain decorated through April 10.
