The Downtown Dallas environment is in for some sensational times. The First Annual Dallas Art Fair is to take place here at the Fashion Industry Gallery, adjacent to the Dallas Museum of Art in the revitalized Downtown Dallas Arts District. Art enthusiasts can attend the inaugural Dallas Art Fair scheduled for February 5-8, 2009.

The event is bound to get the arty types rushing over to this first ever art exhibition. More than 30 prominent national art dealers from 12 cities will exhibit paintings, sculpture, drawings, prints and photographs by modern and contemporary artists.

If you're keen on viewing these great masterpieces, you need only to cover the 0.8 miles, a mere 4 minutes from downtown to buy the tickets and walk in. Tickets are available online too. The internet would also provide avid art aficionados with newsletter and updates regarding the Dallas Art Fair. Happening right in the heart of downtown the FIG (Fashion Industry Gallery) will showcase this special event.

All of 20,000 square feet of the sleek contemporary precincts of the venue on Ross Avenue will have you wrapped up for hours and hours in the wonder and delight of the exhibits. National art dealers from major US cities will put up the frames of famous paintings, prints and photographs. This is not an opportunity to be missed. Just mark time out for the weekend to discover the new arts scene in Downtown Dallas.
