

April, 2015

Art in America

$14 APRIL 2015 COVER BY ALBERT OEHLLEN

THE BRIEF

DALLAS ART FAIR

Drawing nearly 100 U.S. and international art dealers and galleries from 22 countries to the Lone Star state, the seventh edition of the Dallas Art Fair anchors a concurrent Art Week in the city. As part of the initiative, the Dallas Museum of Art will premiere a commissioned work by New York-based performance artist Ei Arakawa; the Power Station will host a show by Belgian duo Harald Thys and Jos de Gruyter; and Dallas Contemporary presents an exhibition by David Salle and Nate Lowman.

*Fashion Industry Gallery, Dallas,
Apr. 10-12.*