The seventh annual Dallas Art Fair runs April 10-12 at Fashion Industry Gallery, and we have a way to see art from more than 100 local, national and international galleries for free.

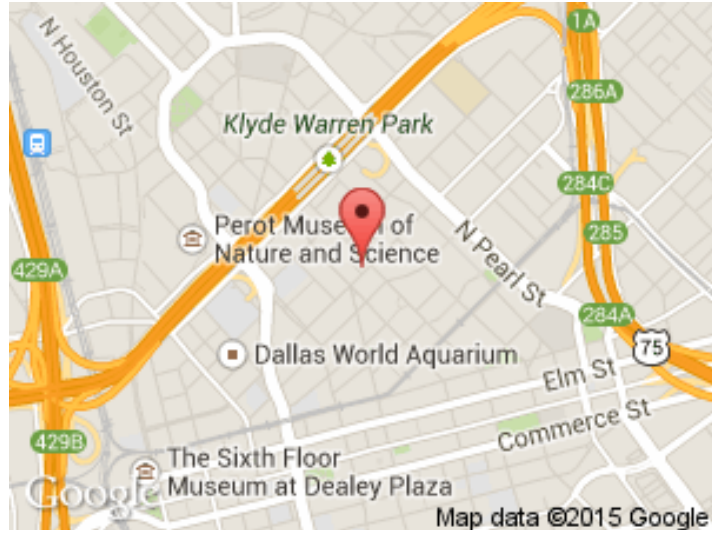

For the third year, CultureMap is partnering with the fair for Professionals Day, granting art enthusiasts free access from 11 am-7 pm on Friday, April 10. All you have to do is claim your complimentary ticket: Visit the Dallas Art Fair's ticketing page, select one-day pass and enter the code DAFProfessional2015.

With a range of art from up-and-coming as well as established artists, the fair appeals to first-time buyers and serious collectors alike. We have sneak peeks at some of the galleries setting up shop during the art-filled weekend, many of which have commissioned works specifically for the Dallas audience.

Think of it as something different to do during your lunch break or the best possible way to play hooky.

Single-day tickets to the Dallas Art Fair normally range from $20-$25; three-day passes run $40-$50. There are only a limited number of Professionals Day passes available, so grab yours now.

Fair hours are Friday and Saturday, 11 am-7 pm, and Sunday, noon-6 pm. For a complete schedule of events and programming, visit the Dallas Art Fair website.
